

Here are some details of what is happening at the Abbey this week:

Saturday, October 10th:

10.00am till 4.00pm. Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public.
(Last entry 3.30pm)

Sunday, October 11th:

11.00am. Morning Worship for the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.
The sermon highlights contradictions and inconsistencies in life and faith.
Some glorious music is sung by the Abbey Choir.
Te Deum by Herbert Howells (Collegium Regale)
and the anthem by Edgar Bainton, And I saw a new heaven.

12.15 pm. Informal Holy Communion in St Mirin Chapel
12.15pm. Coffee and Tea served to worshippers in cafe. Abbey shop open.

4.00pm. Choral Evensong
The Abbey Choir sing beautiful Responses by Kenneth Leighton,
Canticles by Herbert Howells and the anthem
Lobet den Herrn alle heiden (Praise the Lord, all ye nations) by JS Bach.

Monday, October 12th - Saturday, October 17th:

10.00am till 4.00pm (Last entry 3.30pm) Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public.
Guided tours of the Abbey church available
Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from 2.00pm. Lasts approx 45mins. £5pp.

For your diary:

Saturday, October 17th:

12.30pm. Saturday Lunchtime Recital. Traditional Fiddle Music. Entry at door
£10pp. (Loyalty Card available. Each fifth recital free).

Sunday, October 25th:

11.00am. Service with the University of the West of Scotland.
Guest Speaker: Dr Magnus Linklater CBE. Novelist, journalist, commentator.
"Crisis in the Classroom."
Why Scottish Education faces searching questions about its future".
Everybody welcome.

Regards to all
Jim Gibson
Minister at the Abbey