

Thought you might like to know something of what is happening around the Abbey this week:

Saturday, October 17th

10.00am till 4.00pm. Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public.

Last entry 3.30pm.

12.30pm Paisley Abbey Music Society Saturday Lunchtime Concert.

Traditional Fiddle Music.

Entry £10 pp payable at door. (Loyalty Card available. Each fifth concert free)

Sunday, October 18th

11.00am Morning Worship conducted by the Revd Tom Pollock.

Choir sings glorious music: Benedictus by Stanford in C and the anthem by Hubert Howells, Behold O God, our Defender.

Monday, 19th to Saturday, October 24th

10.00am till 4.00pm.

Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public. Last entry 3.30pm.

Special Services

Sunday, October 25th.

Morning Worship with the University of the West of Scotland.

Guest Speaker: Dr Magnus Linklater CBE, novelist, journalist, commentator.

“Crisis in the Classroom.

Why Scottish Education faces searching questions about its future”.

Service open to everybody.

University staff invited to wear academic dress and process.

Refreshments served afterwards.

Sunday, November 8th.

10.45am. Morning Worship for Remembrance Sunday. (Please note earlier time!)

12.15pm. Holy Communion in St Mirin Chapel

4.00pm. Choral Evensong.

Regards to all.
Jim Gibson
Minister at the Abbey.